

Business Licenses Applications for a City of Covina business license are available in the Finance Department at City Hall. To review a sample of the Business License application, click here.

For questions regarding Business Licenses, call (626) 384-5506.

In-home business license applications must be approved by the Planning Division. To review the Standards for In-Home Businesses, click here. In-home businesses use the same application form as other businesses.

It is important to understand that although Business License fees are paid at the time of application, the license is not activated and no business should transpire until the application is approved and a certificate is issued.
